The first of its kind in Cameroon, BERUDA's home-stay program allows you to choose the village, length of stay and activities during one of the most unique cultural experiences of a lifetime!

Experience rural life first-hand and become part of a family. Sleep in the same compound and discover the details of daily life for a Kom family.

Walk for water with the children. Pound fufu corn for dinner. Cook and eat with the family. Shop at the local market. Find out how a polygamous family works. And share stories from long ago around the fire...

For the ultimate cultural experience, you can tailor your home-stay any way you like with the following options:

Option A	Option B	Option C
Become part of the family, staying in the same compound each night to gain a unique insight into daily life.	Gain a broader cultural perspective by experiencing life with both Christian and Muslim families.	If you love horseback riding, you can spend the nights with the family and ride throughout the day.
